

DAHLIA SOCIETY OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA, GEORGIA
SEPTEMBER, 2018 NEWSLETTER

IT'S SHOW TIME IN ATLANTA—The 2018 show will be held this Saturday and Sunday, September 29 & 30 in Mershon Hall at the Atlanta Botanical Garden. Growers from Alabama, North Carolina and Tennessee will be joining Georgia growers for the show which will have over 500 flowers displayed. The show is free with Garden admission so all of you dahlia lovers come and see these stunning flowers. Members get in free so you need to bring your membership badge.

Members we need you to help get the show underway by coming to Mershon Hall at 1:00 PM on Friday to help set up the tables and other tasks required before growers can start staging their flowers. Also, please bring some goodies for the growers to eat during their staging of flowers which can last till midnight. New members, this is a great time to meet fellow members and learn how to show your dahlias. If you do bring dahlias to show you will compete in the novice section and experienced growers will help you stage your flowers. MEMBERS are also needed on Sunday ter-afternoon to help close the show down at 4 PM. Members can also take flowers from the show home with them so make sure you are there by 3:45 PM

MEMBERS—We need clerks to assist the judges in keeping a complete record of the judges' decisions. Also, if any member would like to be an apprentice judge in order to learn how to judge dahlias, this is an opportunity to do so.
